Similarly for Sunabeda Township and Bhubaneswar Municipal area there is separate set of Rules called as "Allotment of Government Land in Sunabeda Township" and "Government Grants Act, 1896" respectively.

Question: What is the manner of settlement of Government Land?

Answer:

- All applications for settlement of Government land irrespective of purpose of lease or the extent of area involved either in urban area or rural area shall be filed before Tehasildar having jurisdiction over the area in which land is situated.
- On receipt of application, Tehasildar shall cause an enquiry/ verification with respect to ROR & Map, ascertain whether land is free from encroachment and whether any dereservation is required. If after verification/enquiry it is found that land can not be settled then he can reject the application with a reasoned and speaking order.

- If after necessary verification Tehasildar finds that land can be settled then Tehasildar shall publish a proclamation (by beat of drum, affixing a copy in his Notice Board, affixing a copy in G.P. office Notice Board), inviting objection, fixing a date for hearing the said objection, if any. The proclamation period is 30 days.
- After expiring of 30 days the Tehasildar shall dispose of objection if received by way of a reasoned and speaking order and may recommend for settlement or may reject the settlement. If no objection is received he will proceed for settlement of the land and after appeal period is over he will submit case record to such officer as empowered under schedule-II of OGLS Rules, 1983.

Question: What is meaning of de-reservation and why it is required?

Answer: Government has power to reserve such portion of land as deemed proper for the purpose of being used as house-site or for any communal or industrial purpose. (Section-3 of OGLS Act, 1962)

Similarly if Government feels that the land so reserved is no longer required for the purpose it has been reserved, or the said reserved land no longer serves the purpose for which it was reserved or the said reserved land is in excess of the reasonable requirement, then Government can de-reserve the said land. Collector of the Dist. has been empowered to de-reserve the land. That de-reserved land can be settled following provisions of OGLS Act and OGLS Rules. (Section-3-A of OGLS Act, 1962)

Question: What is the principle of de-reservation and who is competent to de-reserve?

Answer:

- Collector of the District is competent to de-reserve the land reserved for specific purpose.
- Tehasildar shall prepare a case record with land plan and land scheduled proposed to be de-reserved.
- Then Tehasildar shall go for issuing proclamation inviting objection if any from general public. The proclamation period is 30 days and proclamation should be by way of beat of drum with copy to Notice Board of Tehasildar, Notice Board of G.P/ ULB.
- If no objection is received during proclamation period Tehasildar shall submit his proposal to Collector for de-reservation giving justification for the same.
- If any objection is received during proclamation period he shall hear the party fixing date and time and after hearing is completed, the summary of his hearing along with his recommendation, he shall submit case record to Collector for final disposal.

- While de-reserving Gochar land, Tehasildar shall assess the requirement of Gochar which shall not be less than five percent of effective area. Effective area means the total extent of private agricultural land plus Government lands consisting of Gochar, village forest and waste land in the village multiplied by 20/23.

Question: What is the priority in settlement Government Land in Rural Area?
